Vacancies in office properties set to rise further on supply glut

RAGHAVENDRA KAMATH Mumbai, October 21

VACANCIES IN OFFICE properties are set to go up further as supply is expected to overtake demand in the coming years, analysts tracking real estate companies said.

"Going forward, we are of the view that with headline supply of 133 million square feet scheduled for completion over Q4CY22-CY24 (October 2022 to December 2024) and assuming that annual net absorption ranges between 30-35 million sq ft, headline vacancy levels at pan-India and individual city level may rise further over the next 24-30 months, " said Adhidev Chattopadhyay, vicepresident, equity research real estate and hotels at ICICI Securities in a report released on Wednesday.

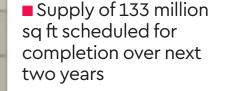

Overall vacancies have risen from 16.9% in Q3CY21 to 18.3% in Q3CY22, he said in the report.

However, Chattopadhyay said that with supply-demand equilibrium remaining stable in preferred micro-markets such as Sarjapur/Whitefield in Bengaluru, Madhapur in Hyderabad, Cyber City in Gurugram, Kharadi in Pune Pune, but stayed flat in other and pre-toll OMR in Chennai, vacancies in these markets may rise marginally even as overall vacancy levels may trend higher.

According to an update released by Nuvama Research, during Q3CY22, office space demand shot up 113% year-on-year to 8.9 million sq ft (down 4% quarter-on-quarter), but supply came in at 14.8msf (up 114% year-on-year/23% quarteron-quarter).

"This was the twelth consecutive quarter when demand trailed supply. Vacancies rose 160 basis points year-on-year rise at micro-markets and buildings that are Grade B type Bengaluru is the only city that still enjoys single-digit vacancy (compared with four cities in Q3CY20). Rents improved quarter-on-quarter in the MMR. Chennai and cities, it said. Quoting JLL, it said that space requirements Grade A buildings. So net view currently active are 36–38 is that Grade B projects vacanmillion sq ft, the same over the cies can rise but vacancies of past one year, indicating the Grade A buildings will most robustness of demand likely stay firm or fall over the pipeline. However, it would still undershoot supply (50-55million sq ft) over the next year. "Consequently, we expect vacancies to increase, putting pressure on rentals. Upcoming office supply of

~136 million sq ft by CY24

implies an uptick of 19% year-

on-year compared with

Q3CY21. Even if some of this is deferred, supply is likely to be enough to keep the demand-as all aspirational tenants seek occupancy in Grade A buildings. During the pandemic, Grade A building were trading at discounted rental value. making it attractive for Grade B building occupies to move to > next 12 months." Amidst the rising trend of vacancies, real estate investment trusts or REITs have shown a resilience. For instance, vacancies at Embassy REIT have stayed at flat 13% in both Q1 and Q2 of FY23.

> Vikaash Khdloya, CEO, Embassy REIT attributed company's performance to high quality properties and growing demand for good properties.

Slave mentality of previous govts led to neglect of our centres of faith: PM

AVANEESH MISHRA Dehradun, October 21

BLAMING THE PREVIOUS governments and their "slave mentality" for "neglecting our centres of faith", Prime Minister Narendra Modi said Friday that "such people never tire of praising centres of faith in other countries", but "look down upon" their own country's centres of faith.

Addressing a gathering at Mana village in Chamoli district of Uttarakhand after praying at the Kedarnath and Badrinath temples, Modi said India of the 21st century will rest on two major pillars: "First, pride in our heritage, and second, all possible efforts for development. Today, Uttarakhand is strengthening both these pillars."

The Prime Minister, who laid the foundation stone of development works worth more than Rs 3,400 crore, including the ropeway projects in Kedarnath and Hemkund Sahib, said, "In the 75th year of our Independence, I made an appeal from the Red Fort to set ourselves free from the mentality of ghulami (slavery). Even after so many years of independence, why did I have to say this? This is because slave mentality has gripped us in such a way that some people find every work of development a crime. Every development is weighed on the scales of ghulami. Therefore, for a very long time, there was hatred towards the development of our centres of faith."

"We all know what happened during the construction of Somnath temple and the Ram temple... Behind this was the selfishness of previous governments. They failed to understand the power of our thousands of years old cultures. They forgot that the centres of faith are not just structures, but a life force for us... Today, the entire country takes pride in our spiritual centres, and the land of Uttarakhand is witness to this change," he said.

"Today, I have come to a bordervillage protecting our country. From this village on the China border, I appeal to travellers across the country to take a pledge to spend at least 5 percent of their travel expenditure on purchasing local products. Just like I talk about 'vocal for local', I appeal for this other pledge... I cannot give orders, but I can request," he said.

Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami thanked the Prime Minister for his interest, and guidance to Uttarakhand. Dhami recalled visiting Ayodhya in 1999 and said hewas sad to see Lord Ram"in a tent".

"When I returned, I was sad that we used to say Ram Lalla hum aayenge, mandir wahi banayenge, but no temple was built for a long time. Today, a grand Ram temple is being constructed there under his (Modi's) leadership. I went to Kashi last year and saw that lakhs of devotees can now visit Lord Vishwanath," Dhami said.

During his visit to Kedarnath, the Prime Minister interacted with daily wagers engaged in construction works at the site.

Dubai/Bengaluru, October 21

BILLIONAIRE MUKESH AMBANI bought an $80 million mansion in Dubai for his youngest son in March, setting a new record for the city's realestate market. Weeks later, a mystery buyer shelled out 302.5 million dirhams ($82.4 million) for an eight-bedroom, 18 bathroom villa on the city's artificial tree-shaped island of Palm Jumeirah. That record, too, would be shattered within months. Ambani last week splashed out $163 million for another mansion on the palm-shaped island, people familiar with matter said, illustrating the relentless rise in demand for Dubai property.

Brokers and developers talk of swift transactions in the market, more than 70% of them in cash. index, which focuses on a city's most desirable and expensive homes, often the top 5% by market value. That far outstrips a 2.5% rise for London on the index, 8.9% in Paris and 7.3% in New York, where deals have been hampered by higher interest rates and energy-related economic slowdowns.

The turnaround has been spectacular. Just over a decade ago, the city's property market collapsed. Now, Dubai - which is part of the United Arab Emirates — is at the heart of one of the world's biggest luxury housing booms.

Some developers still owe banks billions of dollars and a key international financial watchdog placed the UAE on its gray list this year, partly over concerns about allegedly illicit foreign money entering the property sector. The government has said it has made steady progress in monitoring inflows of money and it's taken steps over the years to prevent a repeat of earlier price swings.

Still, Dubai's property registry isn't public and the Land Department doesn't typically provide access to information on the identities of buyers of specific properties. Some critics say the authorities have little incentive to increase oversight or transparency too much because of the economic benefits of the funds pouring into the housing market.
